

Sarah Kinsella, MA CCC-SLP

154 29th Ave
Seattle, WA 98122
sarahdkinsella@gmail.com

SETC Vita

Education

Masters of Arts- Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences, University of Colorado at Boulder
Bachelor of Sciences- Speech and Hearing Sciences, University of Washington
Continuing coursework in instructional practices and assistive technology

Professional Experiences and Activities

Sarah has been a Speech-Language Pathologist with the Everett Public Schools for 9 years. For the past 4 years Sarah has also taken on the role of Assistive Technology Specialist. As lead on the district's Assistive Technology team she consults and collaborates with IEP teams district-wide regarding Assistive Technology, Augmentative and Alternative Communication and specific student needs. Additionally, acting as a liaison between special educators, administration, and Information Technology/Information Systems. She researches and recommends Assistive Technology tools and has provided ongoing trainings to staff in areas related to Assistive Technology and Augmentative Alternative Communication.

Certification and Memberships

Certificate of Clinical Competency, American Speech-Language Hearing Association, 2008-Current WA State ESA Certificate 2007-current
Member of the ASHA Special Interest Group- AAC

Qualifications

Speech-Language Pathologist- Everett Public Schools 2007-Present
Assistive Technology Specialist 2012-Present

Objectives/Intent

Helping students with disabilities achieve educational success by supporting educational professionals in the area of Assistive Technology and Augmentative and Alternative Communication through collaboration/problem solving support and training.