

VITA

Linda M. Doehle
17724 E Daystar Rd
Spokane Valley, WA 99016

Educational Background

- AT Specialist Certificate, California State University, Dominguez Hills, Carson, CA (2010)
- BS in Computer Science, Whitworth College, Spokane, WA (1985)
- Continuing coursework in instructional technology and assistive technology (2008-present)

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistive Technology Specialist, Special Education Technology Center, Central Washington University, Ellensburg, WA (2013 – Present)

- Collaborate with educators and parents on technology solutions for students
- Provide Webinars on special education software and implementation strategies
- Present on a wide range of assistive technology hardware and software
- Phone, internet and in-person consult for OT's, SLP's and educational staff on appropriate assistive technology to increase functional performance and participation of students
- Technical assistance for a wide range of AT products
- Research, test and review new assistive technology products

Assistive Technology Specialist, Yakima School District, Yakima, WA (2011-2013)

- Collaborated with team on assessments, recommendations, training and implementation of assistive technology district wide working with both staff and students.
- Developed procedure for student referral and assessment for assistive technology needs utilizing a team approach involving SLP's, OT's, psychologists, teachers and parents.
- Maintained and programmed assistive technology devices
- Presented staff and parent trainings on various AT topics
- Developed and maintained inventory of AT equipment and software.

Speech Language Pathologist Assistant, Yakima School District, Yakima, WA (2008 – 2011)

- Under the supervision of an SLP, worked to assist students with speech and language disorders.
- Worked as assistant to district's AAC/AT Specialist

Independent Computer Consultant, Almira, WA (1988-2000)

- Taught adult computer usage classes
- Worked for several companies and individuals as programmer, trainer and installer.
- Developed interactive training CD for Windows 286 and 386.
- Assisted individual clients/companies in purchasing equipment, installing and using new software and hardware, and troubleshooting computer problems.

Software Engineer, Itron, Inc, Spokane, WA (1985-1988)

- Designed and coded software for hand held data collection devices utilized by meter reading industry.
- Maintenance Lead responsible for troubleshooting problems directly with clients around the country. Led a team of programmers to resolve problems in a timely and efficient manner.

References

Jerry Connolly, Director of Special Education
Special Education Technology Center
(509)963-3350

Nancy Byers, Executive Director
Special Education Services
Yakima School District
(509)573-5060